

Weaving the Web of Peace: Common Threads Between Us

LEVEL 5, ST ANDREW'S BUILDING, 11 ELDON ST, GLASGOW G3 6NH

This exhibition celebrates over 40 years of The Gareloch Horts, a women's non-violent direct action peace group who campaign and act for the abolition of nuclear weapons in the UK. The exhibition details our actions alongside key political events for context. The exhibition was first shown at Glasgow Women's Library in August 2023. The exhibition opens on Friday 31st October 2025 at 4pm and is available to visit Monday - Friday 9am - 5pm until the 14th November. A programme of activities focussed on peace building and peace education “Wee pieces for peace” are planned during throughout the exhibiton. Please do come along!

